

Wentworth Primary School
Key Skills & Knowledge Progression Map
'Striving for Excellence'

Religion and Worldviews - Substantive Knowledge

For early years, see the key skills and progression map.

	Foundation	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Beliefs:		To know that to believe is when we accept something is true, especially when we do so without proof. To know that some people believe God exists as a powerful, non-human being. To know that in some religions, followers believe in one supreme being or God who is loving. To know that people have different ways of understanding God on earth (incarnation). To know that some people believe that human have a	To know that some people believe God performed miracles in the past. To know that some people believe there are people who are chosen for a special purpose by God. To know that a prophet is someone who talks about God's plan or will. To know that some people believe that God has made a promise between himself and his people. To know that prayer means communicating with God.	To know that soul means a person's spiritual and emotional sense of identity. To know that some people believe all living things have a soul and that it is immortal. To know that spirituality is connection with inner self, immaterial things and belief of something beyond oneself. To know that some people believe spirituality and soul to be unique to humans. To know that some people believe	To know that religious and non-religious worldviews change over time for individuals and groups. To know that people from different religions believe some of the same things. To know that organised and personal religious beliefs change and develop over time. To know that there are historical links and connections between religions. To know that sacrifice means giving up something valued for the sake of something else.	To know the meaning of atheist, agnostic and theist. To know that people have different beliefs about what happens when we die. To know that some people believe in God, who may judge their actions when they die. To know that some people believe in life after death and others may believe death is the end of our life in any form. To know and use correctly the following vocabulary in relation to death: afterlife, reincarnation, soul, judgement, eternity, heaven and hell. To know that many people who are not religious	To know the meaning of omnipotent (all powerful), omniscient (all knowing) and omnipresent (everywhere at all times). To know some of the ways that culture, history, geography and tradition influence people's worldviews. To know that some people believe leaders are anointed (chosen by God). To know that people from the same organised worldview often hold the same key beliefs but may interpret and express them differently. To know that free will means a belief that

special relationship with God.

To know that there are different names for God.

To know that there are different ways to refer to and represent God.

To know that people have different ideas about the role of God.

connection with a god to be a spiritual experience.

To know that actions have consequences and that people think differently about what these are.

To know that forgiveness is cancelling out wrongdoing or removing punishment.

To know that religious and non-religious people have ideas about the relationship between God and humans.

To know that holy means divine, sacred or connected to God.

To know that there is evidence that Jesus was a real person and that people have different beliefs about his significance.

believe in some form of afterlife.

To know that some people believe they will be reincarnated in a different form after death.

To know that in the UK religious beliefs are a protected characteristic.

To know that in some times and places people did not or do not have religious freedom.

To know that throughout history and in modern times people have had to protest or fight for religious freedom.

To know some of the ways that history, geography and leadership influence people's worldviews.

To know that leadership and authority can impact people's worldviews.
To know that worldviews impact the process of choosing leadership and authority.

To know that leadership and authority can impact people's worldviews.

To know that some places are valued by certain humans are able to make their own choices and determine their own fate.

To know that beliefs about the nature of God may impact people's ideas about and responses to suffering.

						people due to things that have happened there.
Practices:		To know that some religious people use art, objectives and special times to represent and remember incarnation of God (of the presence of God on Earth). To know that many people have special ceremonies when babies are born. To know that many people give money, time or donations to charity as a way of showing that caring for others is important.	To know there are some festivals which are celebrated by religious and non-religious people. To know festivals usually celebrate a special or miraculous event from the past. To know worship means to honour and adore. To know there are some objects that are special to followers of religious traditions. To know that one reason religious followers worship is to show gratitude, say 'thank you', to God. To know that a festival is celebrated by many people and happens regularly. To know that people pray in different ways in different places.	To know that rituals are a way of expressing beliefs and ideas about God. To know that prayer, meditation and rituals are used to connect spiritually. To know that the way scriptures are used and treated reflects beliefs about their importance. To know that water is often used in ceremonies and rituals to symbolise cleansing and purity. To know that fire is often used in ceremonies and rituals to symbolise purity and remembrance. To know that worship can take many forms and often involves symbolism.	To know that the way scriptures are treated and used reflects beliefs about their meaning and origin. To know that rituals and practices can be based on religious and cultural roots and that often these are interconnected. To know that the ways scriptures are read and used changes over time. To know that people with similar worldviews may practice in different ways due to historical events. To know that practices change over time.	To know that funeral practices often reflect beliefs about life after death. To know that funerals can be important to help people grieve. To know that some festivals commemorate times when religious freedom has been fought for (e.g. Bonfire night). To begin to consider reasons for taking part in religious practices including belief, culture, tradition and obligation. To begin to consider some of the ways practices are influenced by culture, tradition, geography, leadership and history.	To know that some people may use religious practises (e.g prayer, worship) to help them in times of suffering, To know that a pilgrimage is a journey to a place of religious significance. To know that pilgrimages are an important part of some people's life. To know that pilgrimage helps some people to feel close to God. To know that visiting a place of personal, religious, cultural or historical significance can have a special meaning for many people. To know that there are many reasons for some people taking part in religious practices including belief, culture and tradition.

			To know that objects, words and actions can represent an idea of belief. To know that when some people talk to god they might use their body to show respect. To know that some people talk to god in different ways and for different reasons.				To know some of the ways practices are influenced by culture, tradition, geography and history.
Wisdom and Morality:		To know that some spoken and written words are important to people. To know that creation stories provide people with possible answers as to why we are here. To know that science provides some people with possible answers as to why we are here. To know that followers often read religious stories. To know that religious teachings often encourage	To know that books and stories can have different meaning to different people. To know that religious stories can help us to understand religious beliefs. To know that stories from long ago can be applied to modern life. To know that wisdom means knowledge that comes from experience. To know that guidance means	To know that morals are our thinking about what is right and wrong. To know many religious and non-religious worldviews express the idea of a 'golden rule' relating to how we treat others. To know that the teachings of a religious or non-religious worldview often link with a follower's life choices. To know that people's views about what is right and	To know that stories and scriptures give insights about how to live. To know that religious texts contain different types of writings. To know why the Bible has a significant role in public life in many countries, including the UK. To know that religious scriptures come from a range of sources and origins. To know that religious scriptures are written in different languages	To know that ideas about the afterlife come from many sources. To know that beliefs about life after death can affect how people choose to live their lives. To know that people are inspired and led by others from within and outside their community. To begin to understand that scripture can be interpreted in different ways. To know that within and between religious and non-religious groups people may disagree about challenging issues.	To know that within and between religious and non-religious groups teaching about challenging issues can be contradictory and controversial. To know that writings from long ago can give people insight into modern day issues. To know that ideas and beliefs about suffering come from many sources. To know that some people use stories about how others became close to God

		gratitude for what god created (e.g. others and planet) and a responsibility to look after it. To know that some stories may guide people to care for others. To know that the way people treat animals and nature reflects their worldview.	advice, informance or rules given by someone in authority. To know that values are what people see as important in life. To know that prophets and gurus are considered to share God's wisdom and guidance have had it revealed to them by God. To know that religions have forms of guidance or rules (commandments) and believers will follow these in different ways.	wrong change over time and place. To know that many factors affect our morals and life choices.	and this can affect interpretation.		to guide them in achieving the same aim. To know that cultural, historical and geographical context can affect how scripture is interpreted. To know that people disagree on whether ancient writings are still relevant to modern life. To know that the same guidance or scripture can be interpreted differently by people.
Community and belonging:		To know that religious (and non-religious) groups often provide support and care to their local and worldwide communities. To know that people with similar worldviews often work together to care for the world and for others.	To know that many festivals are often celebrated as a community. To know that some people find praying or worshipping as part of a community helpful. To know that members of the same community may have similar or different ways of life.	To know that for many people relationships with others and being part of a community are important. To know that all communities have rules and guidance for how to live together. To know that ceremonies involving water and fire are important occasions	To know that being part of a community with similar beliefs is important to some people. To know that the history of religion affects how people see their own and others' communities. To know that the language used during worship and prayer is important for some people when	To know that funerals can be important times for communities to support one another. To know that communities sometimes fight or protest for the rights of themselves or others. To know that the community or group someone is part of shapes their sense of belonging. To know that religious communities usually have a leader who carries out	To know that people respond in different ways then they see people in their community suffering. To know experiencing a pilgrimage together can help some people feel a sense of community and belonging. To know that some people feel significant connection to a building or place.

		To know that some religious and non-religious people carry out ceremonies when babies are born to welcome them into their community. To know that baby welcoming ceremonies often include symbols and actions to show the baby's relationship with God.	To know that many religious groups have special buildings which may have features linked to beliefs and practices. To know that offerings used to express gratitude may be used to help a person's local or national community. To know that within a community people have different values, ideas and beliefs.	for some communities. To know that candles or flames are sometimes used as a sign of remembrance.	connecting with their community. To know that for some people outward expressions of belief are important for a sense of belonging. To know that disagreement and change happens in communities.	certain duties with or on behalf of the community. To know that some people may find religious spaces significant even if they are not part of that religion. To know that some places are of particular significance due to historical, cultural and geographical reasons.	To know that, for some, the people in a particular space are more important than the place itself. To know that shared practices can be important to give some people a feeling of belonging. To know that some practices might demonstrate belonging to a particular community. To know that shared challenge can bring people closer together. To know that particular places can be significant to their religion based on scripture and historical events.
Worldview- related knowledge:		To know that some people who follow the Jewish worldview: Believe in one existence of one God. Believe that God made humans	To know that some people who follow the Jewish worldview: Believe the stories of Abraham, Noah and Moses show God's promises.	To know that some people who follow the Hindu worldview: Believe that Brahma's (God's) spirit is within every living thing as everything comes from him.	To know that some people who follow the Buddhist worldview: Believe the teachings of Siddhattha Gotama (known as the Buddha). Use the Buddhist canon for guidance.	To know that some people who follow the Christian worldview: Believe in the Trinity (Father, Son and Holy Spirit). Believe God sent the Holy Spirit to be with people and that this spirit helps and guides them.	To know that some people who follow the Muslim worldview: Believe that human beings have free will and may struggle to make right choices. Be committed to completing Hajj

		stewards over nature. Understand the Torah to contain the 'word of God'. Believe that the Genesis creation story explains how the Earth and humans were created. To know that some people who follow Christian worldviews: Believe in the existence of one God. Believe that Jesus is the son of God and that God is present on Earth. Believe that God made human stewards over nature. Celebrate the birth of Jesus at Christmas by attending church services, giving gifts and retelling the nativity of Jesus. Believe that the Genesis creation	Believe Jesus was a Jewish leader and teacher. Use tefillin to help remind them of God's word. Believe God communicated with humans through the Torah. Visit a synagogue to worship and pray with members of their community. To know that some people who follow Christian worldviews: Believe God to be good and generous in providing for humans. Believe Jesus' birth to be one of God's miracles. Believe that aspects of the nativity story show that Jesus was special. Believe that many prophets told of Jesus' birth before it happened.	Try to follow The Five Niyamas and The Five Yamas. To know that some people who follow the Christian worldview: Believe that they can be forgiven by God if they repent of wrongdoing. Believe they will be judged by God on how they have lived. Believe Eve to have been the first person to sin (do wrong). Believe humans have an eternal soul. Read the Bible in a variety of translations and ways. Use prayer to ask for God's forgiveness. Use water for baptism, following the example of Jesus in the Bible. Follow The Ten Commandments as part of their moral code.	To know that some people who follow the Christian worldview: Believe God wants to have a relationship with humans and this can be achieved through Jesus. Believe Jesus was resurrected (raised from the dead) after his crucifixion. Believe Jesus fulfilled prophecies from the Old Testament. Celebrate Easter remembering Jesus' death and resurrection. Choose to fast during Lent. Believe that Jesus' teachings were radical in the historical and geographical context he was living in. To know that some people who follow the Sikh worldview: Believe that commitment to trying to love God and do what he wants are	Hold the same key beliefs but may interpret and express them differently depending on their denomination. Worship and pray in different ways depending on which denomination they belong to. Express their worldview in a way which reflects their culture. Celebrate Pentecost as when God sent the Holy Spirit to Earth and as the start of the Christian church. Interpret some teachings of the Bible differently or put emphasis on different aspects of key teaching depending on their denomination. Belong to a particular denomination of the Christian church. Relate to their community in different ways depending on the context they live in. Have different buildings, artwork and dress based on culture, tradition and context.	(pilgrimage) at least once in their lifetime. Practise differently depending on the branch they are part of. Pray alone and with others at times of suffering. Go on Hajj as one of The Five Pillars. Travel as part of a large group to join over two million members of the Muslim community at Hajj. Wear special clothing during Hajj. Dress in certain ways which show symbolism and belonging. Believe Makkah to be a significant place. To know that some people who follow the Sikh worldview: Believe that everything that happens is according to God's will (hukam).
--	--	---	---	---	--	---	---

		story explains how the Earth and humans were created. Read stories from the Christian Bible to help them understand God and for advice about how to live a good life. Understand the Christian Bible to be the 'word of God'. To know that some people who follow the Muslim worldview: Believe in the existence of one God. Believe that God made humans stewards over nature. Believe that God is the creator of all things. Give to charity (zakat) as a way of expressing their beliefs. Perform adhan and 'aqiqah when a baby is born.	Believe Noah, Moses and Jonah were prophets (of many others). Celebrate the birth of Jesus at Christmas by attending church services, giving gifts and retelling the nativity of Jesus. Celebrate Harvest as a special time to thank God for providing food, often donating food to others at this time. Believe that God communicated his will through many prophets and that these messages can be applied to their lives today. Use offerings given at Harvest to help others in their local community. Visit a church to worship and pray with members of their community. To know that some people who follow the Muslim worldview:	Try to live in a way that pleases God. Take part in Baptism ceremonies. To know that some people who follow the Muslim worldview: Believe they will be judged by God according to their actions and intentions. Believe that water is sacred. Use water to perform wudu prior to prayer and worship. Believe that the Qur'an provides them with guidance. Try to live in a way that pleases God. Try to follow the five pillars of Islam as living 'belief in action'. To know that some people who follow the Buddhist worldview:	more important to some than ceremonies, rituals and practices. May wish to join or be initiated into the Khalsa through the Amrit Sanskar ceremony. Believe the Guru Granth Sahib to be the final Guru, in written rather than human form. Believe the Guru Granth Sahib was compiled by one of the Gurus and includes teaching from Hindu and Muslim scholars. To know that some people who follow the Muslim worldview: Fast and give Zakat during Ramadan. Choose to eat a halal diet. Believe that as the Qur'an was originally written in Classical Arabic that is the more accurate language to read it in.	To know that some people who follow the Hindu worldview: Believe in reincarnation as their soul being born into another body (samsara). Aim to escape samsara and reach moksha (spiritual freedom) through good karma. Treat a body in special ways after death, including symbolic actions. Be committed to complete at least one pilgrimage in their lifetime, possibly to the River Ganges. Use passages from the Bhagavad Gita to help them understand and respond to death. Consider social status or sections of society to help them understand different roles in a community. Believe the River Ganges to be significant. To know that some people who follow the Humanist worldview: Believe that there is no life after death. Recognise that things we have done in life can have	To know that some people who follow the Jewish worldview: Believe that human beings have free will. Have different perceptions of the mitzvot and practise accordingly. Observe Shabbat. Practise differently depending on their interpretation of scripture (Orthodox or Reform). Reflect on stories from scripture to help them understand and respond to suffering. Dress in certain ways which show symbolism and belonging. Believe Israel to be a significant place. To know that some people who follow the Zoroastrian worldview: Believe there is a constant battle between good and evil both spiritually and morally.
--	--	--	--	---	---	--	--

		Use 99 names to describe Allah (God). Understand the Qur'an to be the 'word of God'. Read the Qur'an and stories about the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) to help them understand God and for advice on how to live a good life. Give to charity as one of the five pillars. Share food and money with their community as part of 'aqiqah when a new baby is born. Give to charity as the third pillar of Islam to support others in the Muslim community. To know that some people who follow the Hindu worldview: Believe in the existence of one God.	Believe that they can communicate with God through prayer. Believe there were other prophets, including Jesus, Abraham, Moses and Noah. Believe Muhammad was specially chosen and the last prophet. Carry out Wudu before prayer Use special positions and actions during prayer called rakat. Visit the mosque and find some of the features help them to pray. Say 'peace be upon him' (pbuh) when talking about Muhammad and other prophets to show respect. Do not use images of God or Muhammad (pbuh) as a sign of respect. Visit the mosque to worship and pray	Believe that the way they think and what they focus on are key to being human. Do not believe in a creator God or God as an external force in their lives. Meditate to ensure the mind is peaceful and focused. To know that some people who follow the Humanist worldview: Believe there is no god. Believe that we have one life and we should make the most of it. Believe human beings evolved naturally and have the potential to lead good and happy lives. Consider what is morally right or wrong by thinking about the effect an action may have on others. To know that some people who follow	Believe that the Qur'an was revealed to Muhammad over 23 years, shared by recitation and written down by his companions after his death. Study the Qur'an from childhood and learn to recite it. Feel that they are part of a worldwide religious community (ummah). To know that some people who follow the Jewish worldview: Believe Jesus to be a radical Jewish leader at the time he lived. Choose to eat a kosher diet. Believe the Torah should be written and read in Biblical Hebrew, translations are used but not considered to be fully accurate. Take part in a Bar/Bat Mitzvah ceremony.	an impact after our death (e.g. work, children, memories). To know that some people who follow the Sikh worldview: Believe in reincarnation. Celebrate Diwali remembering the story of Guru Hargobind. Try to follow the examples of the Gurus when thinking about standing up for their beliefs. Use fire for cremation after death with family being involved in the funeral process. Scatter a person's ashes on body of water. Follow the examples of the Gurus when thinking about standing up for their beliefs. To know that some people who follow the Buddhist tradition: Believe in reincarnation. Read the story of Kisagotami to help them understand and respond to death.	Believe that human beings have free will. To know that some people who follow the Christian worldview: Believe the original sin was committed by the first humans and that this changed the relationship between God and humans (The Fall). Believe that human beings have free will. Read the Bible to help them understand and respond to suffering. Believe Jerusalem to be a significant place. To know that some people who follow the Hindu worldview: Worship deities based on their connection to a specific place or area. May be influenced to worship particular deities by family, culture, tradition and location. To know that some people who follow
--	--	--	--	--	---	--	--

		Believe God created the world and everything in it and this is part of a cycle of many universes that will be created. Believe that God has many forms which help them understand and engage with God. Believe that God is in all living things. Perform Jatakama when a new baby is born. Use murti (forms) to represent the some of the different forms of God. Follow the principle of ahimsa (harmlessness) as a way of life Read many sacred texts including the Rig Veda which contains one of many creation stories to help them understand God. Carry out Jatakarma (baby welcoming) and	with members of their community. To know that some people who follow the Hindu worldview: Believe that they can communicate with God through prayer. Often worship individually. Worship through puja in their home or in a mandir, with rituals including a bell, lighting incense, prayers, offerings to murtus and lamp lighting. Visit a mandir and find that some of the features help them to pray. Believe in harmlessness (ahimsa). Visit the mandir to worship and pray with members of their community. To know that some people who follow the Sikh worldview:	the Jewish worldview generally: Believe that through prayer they can be forgiven by God if they repent the wrongdoing. Believe they will be judged by God on how they have lived. Try to live in a way that pleases God. Believe in seeking forgiveness and self-reflection, especially during Yom Kippur. Treat the Torah and Tanakh in special ways to show respect. Try to follow the 613 mitzvot for how to live. Follow The Ten Commandments as part of their moral code. To know that some people who follow the Zoroatrian worldview:	To know that some people who follow the Hindu worldview: Believe that their religion goes beyond time and space and is therefore eternal. Read from a variety of scriptures including what is sometimes referred to as the revealed and the remembered truths. To know that some people who follow the Bahai worldview: Believe that all religions are ways to understand and describe the same God. Believe that there is one God.		the Buddhist worldview: Go on a pilgrimage or retreat to places of significance. Practise differently according to the form they follow. Describe themselves as following a particular Buddhist form. To know that some people who follow the Shinto tradition: Perform rituals both at home and at shrines.
--	--	--	---	--	---	--	--

		Upanayana (sacred thread) ceremonies. To know that some people who follow Humanist worldview: Have a naming ceremony when a new baby is born. Invite family and friends to a naming ceremony to celebrate the baby belonging to their community. To know that some people who follow the Jain worldview: Believe all living things to contain souls and should therefore be valued and respected. Follow ahimsa (harmlessness) as their main principle.	Believe there is a God and Guru Nanak revealed the truth about God. Believe Gurus to be inspired by God and some may have been specially chosen at birth. Visit a gurdwara and some of the features help them to pray. To know that some people who follow Alevi worldview: Believe that they can communicate with God through prayer. Visit a cemevi and find some of the features help them to pray.	Use fire as a symbol of purity and the light of God.
Key Vocabulary		believe/belief blessing ceremony community creator/creation God miracle religion responsibility	chosen festival Guru messenger place of worship practices prayers prophet ritual sacred shrine	cleanse covenant divine equality eternal faith forgiveness guidance holy inspired moral	ancient commitment culture Dharma fast harmony merciful/mercy origin prophecy revealed/revelation sacrifice	Abrahamic agnostic atheist denomination devotion Dharmic enlightenment exile karma liberation pilgrimage/pilgrim	diversity free will incarnation liberal martyrdom monotheist orthodox protected characteristics secular suffering

			symbol/symbolise temple worship	offering reasoning sin soul	spiritual traditions translation	reincarnation/reincarnated religious succession theist	temptation wisdom
--	--	--	---------------------------------------	--------------------------------------	--	---	----------------------